

Mud Lake

Location: Marshall County, South Dakota approximately 7.5 miles east of Lake City.

Directions: From SD Hwy 10 take Sica Hollow Road north five miles.

Mud Lake is a small undeveloped 200 acre shallow lake surrounded by oak/aspen forest and prairie located just west of Sica Hollow State Park. A small access area with parking on the grass is located on the northwest corner of the lake. No dock or restroom facilities on site, boats must be launched from the shoreline. Suggested route is approximately 3 miles long. Mud Lake does not support a permanent fisheries. Excellent site for observing waterfowl and prairie birds.
